ANYTIME, ANYWHERE

ALMS 2.0 Upgrade Coming Soon!

The screenshot displays the ALMS 2.0 user interface. At the top is a navigation bar with tabs: Home, Training, Tasks, Communities, My Profile, and Reports. Below this is a welcome message: "Welcome to Army Learning Management System (ALMS)!!!!". The main content area is divided into several sections: "Announcements" with a message about DoD personnel completing ethics training; "New Users!!!" with a "Click here" link; "Course/Phases" with a search bar and "Add Course/Phase" button; "Tasks" with a "Request Multi-Rater Assessment" button; "Catalog Search" with a search string input and "Search Learning Catalog" button; and "Current Enrollments" with an "Add Learning" button. Each section has a "No items found" message.

What is the ALMS?

The Army Learning Management System (ALMS) is a Web-based training delivery system that delivers standardized Army training content to Soldiers, civilians, training NCOs, training managers, instructors and unit commanders at home and abroad.

- ✦ Manages training information
- ✦ Provides training collaboration, execution and career planning capabilities
- ✦ Supports both resident and non-resident training environments
- ✦ Provides automated courseware distribution and storage of training content

ALMS 2.0 System Enhancements:

- ✦ More intuitive user interface
- ✦ More flexible web-based courseware delivery platform
- ✦ Scorm 2004 conformance
- ✦ Automated reporting of promotion and retirement points earned for Army Reserve community
- ✦ Powerful catalog search capability
- ✦ Formal and informal collaboration and virtual classroom capabilities (CENTRA)
- ✦ Ability for training managers to provide multiple learning and testing paths leading to course completion or certification
- ✦ Upgraded and expanded content validation system, used by courseware developers to test their web-based products
